Sergeant Steve Brooks, Public Information Officer

Purchase of a building which will be the new Lake County Sheriff's Middletown Substation is approved.

On February 7, 2012, The Lake County Board of Supervisors unanimously approved the purchase of a building located at 21277 Calistoga St (HWY 29) in Middletown. The building which is located directly across from the Middletown Park and library is strategically located in one of the major gateways to Lake County. Sheriff Rivero will be working diligently to open the new substation as soon as possible.

Sheriff Rivero expressed his deepest gratitude for all of the hard work conducted by the Lake County Board of Supervisors. He especially wanted to acknowledge County Administrative Officer Kelly Cox, District 1 Supervisor Jim Comstock and Deputy County Administrative Officer Eric Seely.
